“One of the reasons I decided to teach at BMCC is because of the diversity and the many cultures intertwined in a single place. I feel connected to so many countries just by being in the classroom.”

~Joel Baker, Accounting Professor
Our Commitment is Your Success

Moving to a new city – and a new country – can seem overwhelming. Not to worry, BMCC fosters a safe and supportive environment, as well as programs and services to help you balance college life with personal life.

- Academic Advisement
- Early Childhood Center
- English Language Learning
- Housing Assistance
- International Student Services
- Internships
- LGBTQ Support
- Peer Mentoring

BMCC helps students develop leadership, communication and multicultural skills through internships, student clubs, community service and cultural activities. Students put these competitive skills to work through honors programming, conference presentations and special projects.

College is about learning, but it’s also about having fun. Students find time for enjoyable moments with their peers at campus events, Panther athletic games, local/study abroad trips, community festivals – or exploring the city for their favorite comfort food from home at a local restaurant.

Opportunities in the Classroom and Throughout the City

BMCC credits transfer easily to a bachelor’s degree program within CUNY, SUNY and top private institutions such as New York University, Columbia University, and Cornell University, among others. BMCC alumni are lifelong learners who are leading in many industries and leaving their footprint in the world. The foundation that students gain from BMCC transforms lives, sustains families and makes dreams possible.
